10,500 Recipients

Live & Online Classes

Every year, the IAPE provides 25 live property-and-evidence management classes, hosted by law enforcement agencies across the United States and Canada. The classes are attended by approximately 1,500 people each year. In addition, IAPE offers an online version of the class that receives 300 views per year.

eFlyers
Video Infomercials
Class Workbooks

There are a number of ways to directly reach participants in the classes:

- 1) eFlyers notifying individuals of upcoming classes in their region;
- 2) Video infomercials (played during the live and online classes);
- 3) Class Workbooks utilized by each participant during the live class;
- 4) Class handouts available to pick up by participants in the live classes.

Evidence Log Magazine

Highly Targeted Advertising

IAPE's quarterly digital magazine, Evidence Log, is a publication exclusively for the members of IAPE. The current circulation is more than 4,700—with an estimated readership of more than 15,000—and reaches property and evidence professionals throughout the United States, Canada, and Europe.

The Evidence Log reaches a highly targeted demographic comprised of the people who purchase the products you are advertising. This unique resource was established to further the education, training, and professional growth of property and evidence personnel.

The Evidence Log is the only internationally published property room magazine on the market and is the acknowledged resource for locating property room supplies, equipment, and certified training classes. A continually growing membership through increased training seminars will ensure an even greater number of readers each year.

Workbook Flyer Ads

Insert your advertisement or flyer into the class workbook that is utilized by every participant of our 20+ live classes held across the United States and Canada each year!

Each flyer or brochure will be inserted into the chapter of the IAPE Class Workbook that most closely relates to your product or service. For example, if you're in the shelving market, your flyer or brochure would be placed in the notebook in the module that discusses shelving options.

Students use the IAPE Class Workbook as a go-to resource year after year. And in many cases, the book is passed on to new employees, further increasing its reach and longevity.

1- or 2-Sided Flyer: $1,250/year

Let us print it for you!

Class Handouts

As an advertiser with IAPE, you have the opportunity to send any of your advertising materials (brochures, flyers, CDs, etc.) to our training classes where they will be displayed for students to take with them.

Distribution fee: $625/year

Live & Online Class Video Ads

IAPE travels across the United States and Canada to provide 25 live training events each year. In addition, IAPE has provided online Property and Evidence Training Classes for the past four years. The online class is almost identical to the live class and saves the department costly travel expenses.

The live and online classes include 23 learning modules—each providing you the opportunity to introduce your products or services to our members. This program allows for a 10-second "hosted by" introductory screen at the beginning of a selected module, and a 30-second video clip at the end of the module.

Sponsoring a module places your brand in front of both the live and online audiences all year long.

Module Sponsor Ad: $2,000/year

Training Class eFlyer Ads

187,500
Potential Yearly Impressions

IAPE targets specific demographics and sends eFlyers to inform its members about upcoming training classes in their area. Each class is advertised numerous times within its region throughout the year via email.

Each class eFlyer is emailed a minimum of three times to a typical audience of 2,500 property room professionals. With about 25 classes each year, this gives you a potential for 187,500 impressions throughout the year.
